

Objective: Seeking full-time or part-time employment as an instructor of world literature, writing, or English as a second language.

Education

09/2005-Present: Expected PHD in Comparative Literature -- Graduate Center, CUNY, New York, NY, U.S.A.

07/2006: TESOL/TESL Certification, Oxford Seminars, New York, NY, U.S.A.

09/2001-05/2005: Bachelor of English Literature -- Hunter College, CUNY Honors Scholar, New York, NY, U.S.A.

Work Experience

01/2008- Present Graduate Teaching Fellow – City College of New York New York, NY

- Teaching World Humanities 101, 102
- Teaching Creative Writing and Reading- Eng 331

02/2007-09/08 English Instructor -- ALCC Language School New York, NY

- Teaching World Literature in English
- Instructing Expository and Creative Writing
- Teaching English as a second language

07/2006-01/2007 English Instructor -- Lingua.ru Moscow, Russia

- Teaching English as a Second Language
- Teaching English and American literature
- Instructing Expository Writing

02/2004-06/2006 ESL Teacher -- Jewish Community House Brooklyn, NY

- Teaching English as a Second Language to teenagers and adults of all levels

Interests: 18th and 19th Century Russian Literature, 19th and 20th century British Literature, Classical and Modern Drama, Latin American Literature, Bilingual Writers, Memoir

Foreign Languages: Russian, Spanish

References

Available upon request:

- Copy of Degree(s)
- Copy of TESL Certification
- References