

Curriculum Vitae Zoltan Varga

Departmental Address:
Comparative Literature Program
The Graduate Center, CUNY
365 5th Avenue
New York, N.Y. 10016-4309

Education

The Graduate Center, CUNY
PhD Program in Comparative Literature, in progress since 2006

The Open University in London, U.K. – Central European University, Hungary
MPhil Research Program in Gender Studies, 2007

University of Szeged, Hungary
MA in Ancient Greek, 2004

Central European University, Hungary
MA in Gender Studies, 2002

University of Szeged, Hungary
MA in English Studies, 2001

Awards and Honors

The Graduate Center, CUNY, Sponsored Chancellor's Fellowship, since Fall 2006

Aristotle University of Thessaloniki, State Fellowship to the Summer University Program on Greek Language and Culture, Summer 2004

Central European University, Full CEU Fellowship, 2001-2002

Research and Teaching Interests

Modernist English novel, literary theory, semiotics, gender, ancient Greek literature,
Greek mythology

Conference Papers and Invited Presentations

"Forster's Netherworlds in A Room with a View," Underground: Interdisciplinary Graduate Conference, The Graduate Center, CUNY, 6-7 November 2008

"The Daimonic Eros in Plato's Symposium," National Conference of Students' Scholarly Circles, Budapest, Hungary, 21-23 March 2005

"Gender-Oriented Interpretations of Diotima's Speech," Living Antiquity: National Conference on Classical Studies, Budapest, Hungary, 27 May 2004

Teaching Experience

English 220: Introduction to Literature, Hunter College, CUNY, Fall 2008
English 220: Introduction to Literature, Hunter College, CUNY, Spring 2008
English 220: Introduction to Literature, Hunter College, CUNY, Fall 2007
Teacher of ESL at the International Languages Institute, Hungary, 2005

Professional Activities

Program assistant of the Undergraduate Study Abroad Program, Central European University, Fall 2004

Languages

Ancient Greek, English, Hungarian, German