

Saul A. Kripke, Collected Papers, Vol. I

Forthcoming from Oxford University Press

Table of Contents:

1. "Identity and Necessity." First published in Identity and Individuation, edited by Milton K. Munitz, New York University Press, New York, 1971, pp. 135-164.
2. "On Two Paradoxes of Knowledge." Previously unpublished.
3. "Vacuous Names and Fictional Entities." Previously unpublished.
4. "Outline of a Theory of Truth." First published in Journal of Philosophy, Vol 72, No. 19, November, 1975, pp. 690-716.
5. "Speaker's Reference and Semantic Reference." First published in Midwest Studies in Philosophy, II, 1977, pp. 255-276.
6. "A Puzzle About Belief." First published in Meaning and Use, edited by A. Margalit, D. Reidel, Dordrecht, 1979, pp. 239-283.
7. "Functionalism and Automata." Previously unpublished.
8. "A Problem in the Theory of Reference: the Linguistic Division of Labor and the Social Character of Naming," Philosophy and Culture (Proceedings of the XVIIIth World Congress of Philosophy), Editions Montmorency, Montreal, 1986, pp. 241-247.
9. "Nozick on Knowledge." Previously unpublished.
10. "Russell's Notion of Scope," Mind, 114, 2005, pp. 1005-1037 (Special Edition on the 100th anniversary of Bertrand Russell's paper "On Denoting" in Mind 1905)
11. "The First Person." Previously unpublished.
12. "Frege's Theory of Sense and Reference: Some Exegetical Notes," Theoria, Vol. 74, No. 3, 2008, pp. 181-218.
13. "Presupposition and Anaphora: Remarks on the Formulation of the Projection Problem," Linguistic Inquiry, Vol. 40, No. 3, 2009, pp. 367-386.