

The Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture and the African Studies Association (ASA)

Cordially invite you to
An Opening Reception for
New York Celebrates Africa Week

To honor
THE 50th ANNIVERSARY OF THE AFRICAN STUDIES ASSOCIATION

With
Dr. Mamadou Diouf, Columbia University
Professor of African History at the Middle East and Asian Languages and Culture and History Departments
Director of the Institute for African Studies

Christopher Paul Moore, Schomburg Center
Research Coordinator and co-author:
The Black New Yorkers: 400 Years of African American History and Slavery In New York

Sunday, October 14th, 2007
3:00 p.m.

At the
Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture
515 Malcolm X Boulevard (135th Street)
New York, New York

Kindly RSVP by e-mail to Cherai Daniels: cdaniels@rci.rutgers.edu by October 11th

Come celebrate the beginning of New York Celebrates Africa Week at the newly renovated Schomburg Center. In honor of the 50th Anniversary of the African Studies Association (ASA), the Local Arrangements Committee of ASA has organized a full week of events from October 14th to October 21st which will showcase Africa-related New York City venues including restaurants, museums, workshops, art galleries, and nightclub performances.