

Globalization and Resistance Conference

CUNY Graduate Center, 365 Fifth Avenue (between 34th and 35th), NYC

November 16-17, 2001 (doors open at 8:30 am, space is limited)

Pre-Registration Announcement

This conference hopes to educate activists to the broad range of issues raised by globalization and to generate a dialogue among the various strands of the emerging global justice movement. In light of recent events surrounding the World Trade Center, the emphasis of the conference will also include broad ranging discussion and action plans on the effects and implications of this tragedy.

Confirmed Speakers: Rabab Abdulhadi, Tariq Ali, Stanley Aronowitz, Clyde Barrow, Barbara Bowen, Peter Bratsis, Jeremy Brecher, Dennis Brutus, Alex Callinicos, Mike Davis, Manuel DeLanda, Bill DiFazio, Silvia Federici, Barbara Garson, Susan George, Michael Hardt, David Harvey, Howie Hawkins, Doug Henwood, Forrest Hylton, L.A. Kauffman, Jonathan King, Joel Kovel, Manning Marable, Randy Martin, Kim Moody, Robert Naiman, Frances Fox Piven, Michelle Robidoux, Corey Robin, Stuart Schaar, Bill Tabb, and Rob Weissman

Plus: ACT UP, Critical Resistance, Direct Action Network, Green Party, Indymedia, Justice Action Coalition, Professional Staff Congress AFT, Rainforest Action Network, UNITE!, United Students Against Sweatshops

Sponsored by: The Center for the Study of Culture, Technology, and Work (GSUC), GSUC Continuing Education and Public Programs, The Center for Place, Culture, and Politics (GSUC), The Professional Staff Congress AFT, Left Turn, FREE CUNY, NY Open Center

For program information: contact: Heather Gautney at The Center for the Study of Culture, Technology and Work (CUNY Graduate Center) – hgautney@gc.cuny.edu.

To register:

$25 for both days

$15 for students and low income

By mail: Complete the form below. Make check or money order payable to: The Graduate Center, CUNY. Mail to: Continuing Education and Public Programs; The Graduate Center, CUNY; 365 Fifth Avenue; New York, NY 10016-4309. By phone: with a credit card – Visa, Mastercard, AMEX -- call (212) 817-8215.

PRE-REGISTRATION FORM

Name: _____

Institution/Affiliation: _____

Address: _____

Phone: _____

Email: _____