BILDNER SEMINAR

SOUTH AMERICAN INTERVENTION IN HAITI

Monica Hirst

*Professor of International Affairs
Torcuato Di Tella University
Buenos Aires, Argentina*

The central aim of this presentation is to provoke a critical reflection and analysis of the regional and international actions of the South American countries that have assumed responsibility and visibility in their post-war reconstruction missions. Particular attention will be conferred to the role of Brazil.

About the Speaker: Monica Hirst is a US-Brazilian academic based in Buenos Aires as professor of International Affairs at the Torcuato Di Tella University. She currently coordinates the Political Cooperation Area of the Project 'The Reconstruction of Haiti: Strengthening Argentina's Capacity for Effective Cooperation,' run by FLACSO-Argentina and supported by IDRC. Prof. Hirst has published extensively on Brazilian foreign policy, Latin America-U.S. relations, regional security and integration issues.
